WHO AM I

I have been photographing hotels for 3 years now and I have loved every moment of it. Getting to see different architecture is what keeps my creativity alive. If you are a small B&B or a large resort on an island I will put my all into creating images that will capture the essences of your establishment. Not because its what I like do it, it's because it's what I love to do.

Growing up I always found hotels to be this place to get away from reality. An exciting trip with friends or family where for a couple days you get to disconnect from work and the daily grind, and transform into tranquil relaxation. Every hotel I travel to is a new and exciting experience. Whether it is a staycation in a boutique downtown hotel or a luxurious getaway in a paradise resort.
