Who am I

I am a lifestyle and product photographer that works with brands to help tell the story of their products through photography. My style of desaturate warm colors adds a unique and creative look to any image.

I was born and raised in the San Francisco Bay Area. Growing up I found photography as a fun way to create memories when spending time with my family and friends. It wasn't until I moved to the Pacific Northwest in 2018 I found my love of photography. Spending hours in the outdoors everyday, I began to realize that capturing scenery around me was what I loved to do. I quickly turned my love of landscape photography into lifestyle storytelling. Going out documenting my days in the back country with the products I use. It became very appart that this was what I loved to do. My passion for photography shines though when I am creating new and exciting work for my clients.
